Surprise letter asks county for sit-down on differential

By Brian Gilliland

(June 22, 2018) In a move that took both the county commissioners and staff off guard, Commissioner Joe Mitrecic of the Ocean City district read from Ocean City Rick Meehan requesting a summit on the resort's funding and fire service grants.

The move took place after the regular agenda had concluded, and Mitrecic apologized for not making copies to distribute to his peers earlier, because, he said, he was in a required training session for county employees.

Commissioner President Diana Purnell was taken aback by the request to read the letter, and asked County Administrator Harold Higgins if he had seen it, and he replied he had not.

"Where did you get the letter?" she asked.

Mitrecic told her it arrived at his house from the post office, but didn't provide a date.

He said the resort was "trying to See CHANGE Page 76

Viking ship sets sail for Ocean City

By Greg Ellison

(June 22, 2018) After hosting replica Spanish galleons in recent years, Ocean City will welcome the world's largest modern Viking ship, the Draken Harald Harfagre, to port in late August.

Special Events Director Frank Miller presented the City Council a proposal for the Draken to dock on the bayside boardwalk along Chicago Avenue between Third and Fourth streets from Aug. 22-29.

"The Draken is smaller than the Spanish galleon that was here," he said. "They've recreated the ship using a lot of old methods."

Compared to the 170-foot-long El Galeon Andalucia, which moored in the same location last August, Miller said the single-deck Draken measures 115-feet long, 26-feet wide, with a 75-foot tall mast.

"[The mast] is very tall for such a small ship but is characteristic of Viking ships of that day," he said. "The sail is almost as large as all of the sails on the Spanish galleon together at 3,200 square feet."

The Draken was constructed between 2010-2012 and hand-built from historical records.
